De Gissac, which has been framed in a very handsome "Florentine" frame, making a portrait well worth a visit, to all, and more especially to the the ladies.

I will be glad to welcome my old and many new customers. Don't forget my new address, over 701 and 703, Austin Ave.

Respectfully,
DEANE, Photographer

A CHANGE.

Mr. Hatton Sells His Fine Pacific Saloon.

A change of business occurred yesterday which was a great surprise to everyone. Mr. Ed Hatton sold his famous Pacific saloon to C. A. Ginnocchio. Mr. Hatton has had charge of this place so long and was so popular with the public that it can hardly realize the change. Major Skinner said he knew nothing of the contemplated change until Mr. Hatton brought the new proprietor in and introduced him. Mr. Hatton will remain in Waco.

SUGGESTION TO LADIES.

In Reference to the Auction Sale of Diamonds and Jewelry.

A News reporter met Mr. D. Domnau, manager for Mr. L. Newburg, this morning and in speaking of the opening and yesterday's grand auction sales of diamonds and jewelry, he said that he would be compelled to discontinue the special auction sales for ladies because it was impossible to keep the place from being so crowded as to render it unpleasant for them, but that they would find abundant opportunity to purchase all they wanted between the auction hours. Mr. Domnau says the sales have been immensely successful and suggested that the ladies send their husbands down to buy what they wanted at auction.

The auction hours are from 10 to 12 a. m., 2 to 4 p. m. and 7:30 to 10 p. m.

EVIDENCES OF APPRECIATION.

A Few Slugs of Taffy Received by Brother Brown.

From the Iconoclast.

The Iconoclast likes taffy, and when it succeeds in corraling a slug proceeds to roll it as a sweet morsel under its tongue. Following the oddest example of its contemporaries, it herewith hangs up a few of the gracious gobs for the inspection of an envying world:

SKEDUNK CROSS-ROADS, April 6

EDITOR ICONOCLAST:—My son Jacob found a copy of your paper at the hotel. He didn't know it was loaded. Please state that his funeral will take place as soon as we can get enough of him together to fill a peach basket
HENRY SPOOPENDYKE.

SLABTOWN, April 7.

EDITOR ICONOCLAST:—Enclosed find a year's subscription. I read one column of the Iconoclast to a man that has owed me a liquor bill for four years. He paid up and moved to Alaska.
PETER SOURMASH.

GUM ISLAND, April 5.

EDITOR ICONOCLAST: I have been much bothered by peddlers, book agents, etc., I now keep a copy of the Iconoclast handy and when I see one coming through the front gate I fire one of your jokes at him. It kills every time. Once I missed an insurance agent that I was laying for and killed a valuable mule, but it was the result of my own carelessness.

STUMPY BILLFINGER.

HOGWALLOW, April 6.

EDITOR ICONOCLAST: For heaven's sake send me another copy of your paper by first mail. I read the one sent me in a saloon the other night and four political candidates fled to Mexico. My wife tried to swallow one of your jokes and has the lookjaw. I think another copy will do the work.
JOHN JOHNSON.

YOU SHOULD NOT BE WITHOUT IT.

Every family is liable to have a hereditary taint of consumption in it. It may date back three or even four generations. This fact makes it necessary always to have on hand a remedy with which to combat this formidable disease. A cough when taken at first can readily be cured before it gets a serious hold on the lungs. Ballard's Horehound Syrup when taken in its early stages will cure consumption. It is guaranteed to bring relief in every case, when used for any affection of the throat, lungs and chest, such as consumption, inflammation of the lungs, bronchitis, asthma, whooping cough, croup etc. It is pleasant to take, perfectly safe and can always be depended on. Sold by H. C. Risher & Co.

Touching Pianos and Organs.

I claim to be a cheap house, but unlike some of my competitors, I do sell goods that are not first-class. Still I have more first-class goods in my house than any house in Waco, and I do not have to wire anyone to know the lowest price. I can sell a piano like every other first-class house and keep all kinds, both cheap, medium and first class. But unlike some other houses I do not sell a cheap instrument as first-class, because I am my own boss, and do not have to do as I am told about these things. Neither have I as delicate a musical ear as some, still I sell more pianos and organs, better ones and for less money than any house in Waco notwithstanding the fact that I am not the oldest house in the state and have sold sewing machines and do trade for mules, horses and cattle and take them at good prices and sell goods at cash prices and will meet any competitors. Come and see me.
Yours truly,
J. B. PAYNE.

An Investigation.

Mr. V. A. Simmons, the present city sexton was placed in nomination last night at the council meeting for re-appointment to the position, but it seems that some charge had been made against him. Action in the matter was deferred till the next meeting of the council and the charge was referred to the cemetery committee for investigation. The committee will no doubt find that Mr. Simmons has made a faithful officer, and so report, and the nomination will be confirmed, notwithstanding the fact that there seems to be an organized effort on the part of interested parties to oust him.

He is willing that his work shall speak for his qualifications and invite its closest inspection thereof.

They poulticed her feet and poulticed her head, And blistered her back till 'twas smarting and red, Tried tonics, elixirs, pain-killers and salves, (Though grandma declared it was nothing but "nerves.") And the poor woman thought she must certainly die. Till "Favorite Prescription" she happened to try. No wonder its praises so loudly they speak, She grew better at once and was well in a week.

The torturing pains and distressing nervousness which accompany, at times, certain forms of "female weakness," yield like magic to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and adapted to the delicate organization of woman. It allays and subdues the nervous symptoms and relieves the pain accompanying functional and organic troubles.

It's a legitimate medicine—an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and strengthening nerve, and a positive remedy for "female weaknesses" and ailments. All functional disturbances, irregularities, and derangements are cured by it. There's nothing like it in the way it acts—there's nothing like it in the way it's sold. It's guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or the money paid for it is promptly refunded.

Read the guarantee on the wrapper. You lose nothing if it doesn't help you—but it will.

Will Not Turn Loose.

The Royal barber shop is still strictly in it so far as the most expert artists, the sharpest razors and the best cosmetics are concerned, and the fact that no Texan, whether for Clark or Hogg, will ever be turned loose after taking a seat in one of the comfortable chairs of this establishment till he is tenderly and closely shaven, to his entire satisfaction, can be vouched for by its many patrons.
